

TRAINING & EDUCATION COMMUNITY PARAMEDIC CORE COMPETENCIES

1ST EDITION | 2022

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MOBILE INTEGRATED HEALTHCARE PROVIDERS

DIDACTIC COMPETENCIES

- Introduction to Mobile Integrated Health and Community Paramedicine, Program Types and Variations
- Professional Boundaries | Client Engagement and Motivational Interviewing Techniques
- Interactions: Types of Visits, Best Practices, Determining Visit Cadence, Determining Enrollment Terms
- The Role of the Mobile Integrated Health and Community Paramedicine in Public Health | Community Outreach
- Social Determinants of Health and Health Equity
- Community Needs Assessment | Identification of Target Populations
- Plan of Care | Goals and Care Plan Establishment | Multi-disciplinary Approach to Care Plan Interventions and/or Care Coordination
- Chronic Disease Management and Education (How to Develop and Teach)
- Behavioral Health and Substance Use Disorders | Mental Health First Aid Training
- Long Term Care | Assisted Living, Skilled Nursing, Rehab, Rehab Hospital and Determination of Need
- Communication Strategies for Special Needs Populations
- Communication Strategies for Pediatric, Geriatric, or other Special Populations
- Special Considerations (e.g. Bariatric Care, High-risk Pregnancy, Substance Use Disorder or Addiction, General Special Needs, Abuse and Neglect
- Patient Needs Assessment
- Pathophysiology
- Patient Assessment
- Lab Values/Point of Care Testing
- Geriatrics
- Hospice and Palliative Care
- Nutrition
- Pharmacology
- Immunizations
- Personal Safety and Wellness
- Ethics and Cultural Competence
- Home Safety Assessments and Interventions (e.g. PEAT Score)
- Documentation | Longitudinal and Standard Assessments (e.g. Satisfaction Survey | Wellness Survey | Care Plan | Clinical Assessments)
- Learning Styles | Addressing Communication Barriers and Low Health Literacy
- Insurance | Federal and Local Programs | SSI, SSDI, and/or Disability

CLINICAL COMPETENCIES

- Internship/Orientation
- PCP Office Rotations
- Respiratory (COPD/PNA)
- Cardiac Care
- Renal and Endocrinology
- Behavioral Health
- Substance Use Disorders
- Wound Care and Assessment
- Trach Care and Replacement
- Ultrasound
- Infusions, PICC Lines and CVCs
- Lab Draws and Point-of-Care Testing